Cattle and Horse Growers Assn.

109th Annual Meeting

February 25, 1978

The 109th annual business meeting of the Bent-Prowers Cattle and Horse Growers Assn was called to order by Pres. Narvey Larrew at 1:30 P.M. Saturday, February 25, 1978 at the Humanities Center of Otero Junior College. We were welcomed to the city by the President of the Chamber of Commerce and also the Mayor Pro-tem Arthus Sneed. The Southeast Colorado Junior Cattlemen's Assn. led the Flag Salute.

State Veterinarian John Huddleston presented a film and talk on the Scabies problem. There was a question and answer period concerning the serious Scabies outbreak and the dipping regulation to become effective March 1, 1978.

It was moved by John Givan/ Calvin Thompson to dispense with the reading of the minutes. Motion carried.

The treasurers report was given with a balance on hand of $2172.95.

CCA executive Vice-Pres. Dave Rice gave a report about the work in the state legislature.

Several door prizes were presented throughout the meeting that had been donated by the La Junta merchants.

President Larrew then called on the chairman of the Resolutions Committee, Mick Mendenhall. He presented seven resolutions.

1. Bent-Prowers Assn. supporting the NCA actions in regards to imports.
2. The resisting of all government price controls or subsidies.
3. Bent-Prowers recommends that NCA give due consideration to the "Bellman Bill".
4. Bent-Prowers recognizes the efforts of American Agriculture and is in agreement with their goals to obtain higher prices in agriculture.

5. Copies of resolutions to be sent to each officer and director of Bent-Prowers, the CCA and NCA and the news media.
6. The thank you resolution.
7. Bent-Prowers objects to anyone using state lands as a vehicle for acquiring water for their commercial use or enrichment and attempting to secure all rights in all deeper aquifers to the exclusion of all engaged in farming and ranching.

It was moved by Mick Mendenhall / Jim McMillin that these seven resolutions be accepted. Motion carried.

State CCA President Ken Clark spoke about the history of CCA and Bent-Prowers Assns., also that NCA will be proposing another Beef Referendum which can be passed with a majority vote rather than a 2/3 vote.

A short report was given by State Brand Commissioner Jay Rowe.

Jim Schleining, President of the Juniors reported on their summer activities, election of new officers and one new advisor. He also stated that the Juniors were exactly 22 years old this day.

Mrs. Pauline Reyher reported on the Cowbelles Beef Promotion program of the afternoon which was presented by Sharon Bäck, a consumer consultant with the Colorado Beef Board.

Resolution No. 7

BENT-PROWERS CATTLE AND HORSE GROWERS ASSOCIATION strongly objects to all efforts of any individual, group of individuals, corporations, and any other group, to use state lands as a vehicle for acquiring water for their commercial use or enrichment; said appropriators attempting to secure all rights in all deeper aquifers to the exclusion of all presently engaged in farming and ranching, thus, in effect, drying up all of Southern Colorado.
